NEWS RELEASES

PUBLISHED: JULY 17, 2014

Husch Blackwell Adds Immigration Talent to its Technology, Manufacturing & Transportation Team

Service

Business Immigration and Global Mobility

Industries

Manufacturing

Technology

Transportation

Husch Blackwell welcomes Associate Kelli J. Stout to the firm's Technology, Manufacturing & Transportation team in Kansas City, Mo. She will primarily assist industry clients with business immigration matters.

Stout previously worked in the Kansas City, Mo., office of The McCrummen Immigration Law Group, LLC (2012-2014), where she represented businesses and individuals in their business immigration matters, assisting clients in obtaining work authorization on a temporary or permanent basis and immigration compliance matters. She also represented clients in affirmative asylum cases. Initially upon receiving her J.D., Stout served as a law clerk for the Hon. Patrick J. Roma of the Superior Court of New Jersey (2011-2012).

Stout received her J.D., cum laude, from Seton Hall University School of Law in Newark, N.J., (2011), where she was executive editor of Seton Hall Law Review. She received her B.A. in Political Science and Spanish, with distinction, from the University of Kansas (2008).

Clients rely on Husch Blackwell's Technology, Manufacturing & Transportation team of more than 100 multidisciplinary attorneys to handle industry-specific challenges head-on. From sourcing and transporting raw materials to distributing manufactured products globally, the firm is immersed in all aspects of the industrial production sector. Husch Blackwell's Immigration attorneys represent employers with immigration sponsorship matters, and regularly advise clients on a full range of issues relating to compliance with immigration laws.

© 2026 HUSCH BLACKWELL LLP. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED