

Adam S. Kirshenbaum

PARTNER

Adam focuses his practice on commercial transactions and business entity formation and structuring. He represents borrowers and lenders in various types of finance and lending transactions, including cross-border financings and securitizations. Adam also represents buyers and sellers in merger and acquisition transactions, including those involving financial institutions. In addition, he assists issuers in public and private securities transactions and advises on the structuring and formation of private equity funds, including real estate investment funds.

Awards & Recognitions

- Leadership Omaha, Class 32, Graduate
- Midlands Business Journal, "40 Under 40", Class of 2011

Professional Associations & Memberships

- Association for Corporate Growth Nebraska; Formation Committee Member, 2009-2010
- Midlands Venture Forum, Board of Directors
- Nebraska State Bar Association
- Omaha Bar Association

Admissions

- Nebraska, 2001

Education

- J.D., University of Nebraska College of Law, with high distinction, 1999 Order of the Coif
- B.A., University of Nebraska, 1996

Publications & Presentations

- Co-author, "Private Equity: Pros and Cons," Nebraska Banker, September/October 2010
- Speaker, "How To Practice," Nebraska Bar Association Young Lawyers Section, 2000
- Speaker, "Business Entity Selection and Formation," University of Nebraska College of Law Seminar, 2000

Omaha, NE

Direct: 402.964.5026

Fax: 402.964.5050

adam.kirshenbaum@huschblackwell.com

Practices

Mergers & Acquisitions
Corporate
Securities & Corporate Governance
Investment Management
Banking & Finance
International