OVERVIEW

With more than 20 years of experience in immigration law and procedures, Peggy focuses her work on labor and employment issues.

Peggy has a deep understanding of a wide range of U.S. immigration issues, and assists attorneys with preparation of immigration documents and related matters. She has a central role in communicating with clients to manage and coordinate all aspects of their U.S. immigration requirements.

Peggy has substantial knowledge of preparing applications and responses to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) and documents for Immigration Court, as well as applications with the National Visa Center and consular offices around the world. Through the firm's attorneys, Peggy is involved with the American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA) in advancing the quality of immigration and nationality law and practice, and in keeping abreast of the most recent legal and procedural changes.
