Husch Blackwell's Kansas City Office Welcomes New Banking & Finance Associate

Associate Jonah J. Brotman joins Husch Blackwell's Kansas City office. He will focus his practice on Banking & Finance matters, particularly taxation regulatory issues, advising individuals, companies and nonprofit agencies in compliance matters.

Brotman received his LL.M. in Taxation from New York University School of Law (2012) and his J.D. from Washington University School of Law in St. Louis, Mo. (2011), where he was on the Dean's List and received a CALI Excellence for the Future award in Federal Income Taxation. During law school Brotman also worked as a legal intern for the Committee on the Judiciary in the U.S. House of Representatives (Jan. – May 2011). Brotman earned his B.S. from Truman State University in Kirksville, Mo. (2005), where he was on the Dean's list.

Husch Blackwell's Banking & Finance practice focuses on the lending and regulatory activities of regional and national commercial lenders, retail banks, life insurance companies, CMBS conduit lenders, credit unions, savings associations and other financial institutions. Attorneys represent both commercial lenders and borrowers and understand the requirements and approaches of both secured and credit debt financing. The practice also focuses on the regulatory compliance of financial institutions.
