2014 Corporate Equality Index Released; Husch Blackwell Again Earns High Score

The Human Rights Campaign Foundation recently released its 2014 Corporate Equality Index (CEI), and Husch Blackwell received a 90 percent rating. Husch Blackwell's record reflects a commitment to equality for its lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender attorneys, staff and clients.

The CEI rated 934 businesses for this year's index, evaluating LGBT-related policies and practices, including nondiscrimination policies, transgender health benefits and domestic partner benefits.

Visit the Human Rights Campaign website for more information on the 2014 Corporate Equality Index or to download a free copy of the report.

Husch Blackwell promotes diversity in the workplace by striving to recruit, develop, retain and promote talented attorneys and staff with diverse backgrounds and experiences. An inclusive environment enhances Husch Blackwell's service to clients, the legal profession and the community by building a workforce of people with varied backgrounds where individual differences are appreciated.
