Husch Blackwell Named 2026 Nebraska Firm of the Year by Benchmark Litigation

National law firm Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that Benchmark Litigation, a leading global legal directory exclusively dedicated to covering litigation, recognized Husch Blackwell as its 2026 Law Firm of the Year in the state of Nebraska, marking the seventh consecutive year the firm has earned the distinction. The firm was also shortlisted for 2026 Law Firm of the Year in Missouri and Wisconsin.

Among notable Nebraska matters from the past year was Husch Blackwell securing partial summary judgment in a bet-the-company trade secrets and patent dispute and several fiduciary litigation wins on behalf of various clients.

The recognition was announced and presented on March 11 at the Benchmark US 2026 Awards in New York City.
