Husch Blackwell Represents Community Care in Strategic Affiliation with CareSource

A Husch Blackwell healthcare team represented Community Care, Inc. (CCI) in an affiliation with CareSource to address the critical long-term care needs for Wisconsinites by combining the strengths of two established, mission-driven organizations to enhance the delivery of care and improve health outcomes for individuals with complex health needs.

Community Care serves more than 15,000 adults aged 55 and older, as well as those with disabilities aged 18 and older, enrolled in Wisconsin's three major long-term care programs: Family Care, Family Care Partnership, and Program of All-Inclusive Care for the Elderly (PACE). It operates three certified adult day and health centers in Milwaukee, Racine and Waukesha, offering home and community services, care coordination and personal care assistance.

Led by partner Bruce Arnold, the Husch Blackwell team included attorneys Peggy Barlett (M&A), Remy Fesquet (M&A), Kelsey Toledo (healthcare regulatory), Connor Muth (corporate), Robert Romashko (tax), Wendy Arends (antitrust), Megan Christopher (tax), Scott LeBlanc (labor and employment), David Eckhardt (employee benefits), Catarina Colón (labor and employment) and Tommy Benson (employee benefits).
