

WHITE PAPERS

PUBLISHED: APRIL 29, 2015

Service

Data Privacy &
Cybersecurity

Professional

PETER J. ENKO
KANSAS CITY:
816.983.8312
PETER.ENKO@
HUSCHBLACKWELL.COM

Data Security for Employer Health Plans in the Wake of Anthem and Premera

The recent Anthem and Premera data breaches signal a sea change in the threat environment for health plans, a new reality that requires a fresh look at data security. Prudent employers with self-funded group health plans should take that fresh look now, by strengthening the data security provisions in their services agreements with third-party plan administrators, and also by updating their HIPAA-required security risk assessments.

Read the full white paper for more information.