

NEWS RELEASES

PUBLISHED: SEPTEMBER 20, 2013

Services

Asia

International

White Collar, Internal
Investigations, &
Compliance

Husch Blackwell Hosts Shanghai Municipal Administration of Industry & Commerce Delegation

Husch Blackwell recently presented a seminar on American cyber-crime laws and procedures for members of the Shanghai Municipal Administration of Industry & Commerce at the firm's Washington, D.C., office. The Chinese delegation included 20 representatives from the Shanghai Municipal Administration of Industry & Commerce and various district branches that supervise and administer the market and business entities in Shanghai.

Attorneys from Husch Blackwell's Washington and St. Louis offices presented the half-day seminar, including Partners Catherine Hanaway, Jeffrey Jensen and Matthew Schlep, Of Counsel Russell Orban, and Associate Zheng Xie.

Husch Blackwell's International practice group provides clients with comprehensive legal services and expertise for all aspects of their cross-border pursuits, such as international import/export transactions, distribution arrangements, and distributorship and sales representation agreements, as well as acquisitions, divestitures and joint ventures.

The Government Compliance, Investigations & Litigation attorneys at Husch Blackwell provide comprehensive strategic counsel in the high-stakes areas of government investigations, corporate compliance and white-collar defense. The focus of this team is to assist clients in recognizing and avoiding the expanding risk of corporate criminal liability.