Two Husch Blackwell Partners Named to the Inaugural Ingram's 250

Husch Blackwell placed two partners – Chairman Maurice Watson and Kansas City Office Managing Partner Jeff Simon – in the inaugural Ingram's 250. The list is published as part of the magazine's November 2016 special issue and profiles "the most powerful, influential and accomplished business leaders in the greater Kansas City area."

Watson has served as chairman of Husch Blackwell since 2012 and is responsible for developing and communicating the firm's strategic direction. He serves as the firm's visible leader and public ambassador.

In addition to serving as Husch Blackwell's Kansas City office managing partner, Simon is a member of the firm's Partner Board and is an accomplished trial lawyer in connection with numerous matters for Fortune 500 companies.
