Wade Kerrigan Included in Ingram's 40 Under Forty Class

Husch Blackwell Sanders proudly announces that our colleague, Wade Kerrigan, has been included in Ingram's 40 Under 40 Class of 2008. The honor is reserved for Kansas City's leaders, achievers, and newsmakers under the age of 40.

Kerrigan focuses primarily in the areas of mergers & acquisitions, intellectual property, and technology. He specializes in providing emerging technology companies legal and business guidance that helps them strategically plan corporate alliances, technology development and intellectual property protection. Kerrigan works on many technology-related transactions, including agreements related to software licensing, software development, ASP transactions and joint ventures. He has also handled numerous acquisitions and divestitures in the software and telecommunications industries. Kerrigan also provides clients with general advice in the intellectual property and e-commerce areas, including trademark, copyright and internet matters.

Kerrigan is a supporter of St. Paul's Episcopal Church and Day School; he currently serves as a member of the board of trustees for the school.
