Five Husch Blackwell Attorneys Named 2011 "Up & Coming" Missouri Attorneys

Missouri Lawyers Weekly announced their 2011 "Up & Coming" award winners Monday, and five Husch Blackwell attorneys were among those chosen. Judges selected McClain E. Bryant, John C. Crossley and Amber Steinbeck from the Kansas City office; Angela S. Quinn from the St. Louis office; and Paul D. Satterwhite from the Springfield office.

Husch Blackwell's five winners were among the 48 selected for 2011 out of 130 nominees. Those chosen were selected for their positive influence in the legal industry and in their communities. Nominees had to be under 40 years old or have less than 10 years of experience in the field of law. All 48 winners will be honored at a Missouri Lawyers Weekly reception on September 15.
