Kansas City Mayor Sly James is Special Guest at Event Hosted by Husch Blackwell Co-Chairman Dave Fenley

Husch Blackwell Co-Chairman David A. Fenley welcomed Missouri Governor Jay Nixon and Kansas City Mayor Sly James to the firm's Kansas City offices this afternoon for an update on Kansas City and Missouri issues affecting local businesses. A large and diverse group of approximately 60 area civic and business leaders attended the luncheon event.

Gov. Nixon's remarks focused on the State's ongoing Joplin tornado relief efforts and the upcoming special session of the Missouri General Assembly, which begins on Sept. 6 and will focus on economic development and job creation strategies in the State.
