J.Y. Miller named 2011 BTI Client Service All-Star

BTI Consulting Group named Husch Blackwell Partner J.Y. Miller among its BTI Client Service All-Stars 2011. This award is given to an elite group of attorneys recognized nationally as delivering the best in client service. BTI selects its list based on candid interviews with general counsel and their direct reports at Fortune 1000 companies. According to The BTI Client Service All-Stars report, the team is composed of attorneys “who have impressed corporate counsel with their keen understanding of business issues, thought-leading approach and total commitment to client needs.”

A Partner in the firm's St. Louis, Missouri, office, Miller practices Toxic Tort and Business Litigation law. He leads joint defense groups comprising a variety of Fortune 500 companies in products liability and premises liability cases alleging personal injury from exposure to solvents, benzene and asbestos. He also acts as national and regional counsel in a variety of toxic tort matters.
