Chalon Clark Named to Who's Who in Black Dallas

Industry

Financial Services & Capital Markets

Husch Blackwell's Chalon Clark was named to the Fourth Edition of Who's Who in Black Dallas for 2017.

Who's Who Publishing Company celebrates the accomplishments of highly distinguished African-Americans from a variety of disciplines in cities across the United States. The 200 Who's Who in Black Dallas achievers were honored at a September 29 reception.

A partner in Husch Blackwell's Financial Services & Capital Markets industry group, Clark focuses her practice on business and financial litigation, as well as labor and employment matters. She also serves on the firm's Diversity Council.

Clark earned her J.D. from the University of Texas at Austin School of Law and holds a B.B.A. in Finance, cum laude, from University of Houston.
