Husch Blackwell Welcomes Adam Charlsen to Omaha Office

Husch Blackwell welcomed Adam Charlsen to its Omaha office in early January.

Charlsen, senior counsel in the firm's Real Estate & Development group, focuses his practice on real estate matters. With more than ten years of transactional experience, he has worked in a variety of areas, including real estate development, acquisitions and leasing, securities, oil and gas, construction, and complex private and government contracts.

Charlsen is actively involved in parish and school activities at St. Wenceslaus Catholic Church, including Knights of Columbus, the church's recent building capital campaign, and coaching youth soccer. He obtained his J.D. from the University of Tulsa College of Law (2005) and his B.A. from the University of Kansas (2003).
