Husch Blackwell Names Erik Dullea Partner

Husch Blackwell's Erik Dullea has been elected partner in the firm's Denver office, effective February 1, 2018.

Dullea, a member of the firm's Technology, Manufacturing & Transportation team, focuses on administrative and regulatory law, with an emphasis on workplace safety in heavily regulated industries that include mining, energy and aviation. Dullea joined the firm in June 2016 as senior counsel.

A licensed pilot and flight instructor, Dullea is also a noted author and lecturer on the federal Occupational Safety & Health Association (OSHA) and Mining Safety and Health Association (MSHA), as well as cybersecurity for government contractors, and manned and unmanned aviation. He obtained his J.D. from the University of Denver Sturm College of Law, his B.A. from Cornell University and is currently enrolled in the University of Maryland's master's program in cybersecurity law. On May 31, 2018, Dullea will finish a 30-year military career consisting of active duty and reserve service as both a pilot and intelligence officer with the Navy.
