

NEWS RELEASES

PUBLISHED: JULY 5, 2018

Eberle Named Outstanding Alumnus of Milwaukee's Marquette University High School

Paul J. Eberle, Chief Executive of Husch Blackwell, has been named the 2018 Alumnus of the Year of Marquette University High School (MUHS) in Milwaukee.

Eberle was named Chief Executive of Husch Blackwell in February 2018. He joined Husch Blackwell upon its 2016 combination with Whyte Hirschboeck Dudek S.C., where he had served since 2009 as Chief Executive. Prior to his career as a legal executive, Eberle led several successful business ventures. He was the founder and president of Capital Data Inc., a technology, services and leasing company based in Milwaukee. He also served as the managing member of Capital Properties of Wisconsin, a real estate investment and management company, and is a founding shareholder of Green Bay-based LaserNet Inc., a print, mail and electronic document delivery company.

The MUHS Alumnus of the Year award recognizes distinguished professional achievements, distinguished leadership, service to MUHS, service to the community, and loyalty to the ideals and values of Marquette University High School. This award is the high school's premier alumni honor. Eberle will receive the honor at an Alumni Awards Reception July 20, 2018 at the school.