Glynias Named Missouri Lawyers Weekly "Influential Appellate Advocate" for 2019

Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that Josef (Joe) Glynias has been recognized as a 2019 Influential Appellate Advocate, an award presented by Missouri Lawyers Weekly as part of its annual Missouri Lawyers Awards series.

Glynias, a partner in the firm's Food and Agribusiness group, is honored for his work resulting in a far-reaching federal appeals court ruling for ConAgra in a proposed class-action lawsuit.

The Influential Appellate Advocates accolade is awarded to the lawyers behind the most significant appellate decisions of the year. Glynias is one of four Influential Appellate Advocates; they and other recipients of the Missouri Lawyers Awards 2019 will be honored at a luncheon Friday, January 25, 2019 at the Four Seasons Hotel in St. Louis.
