Derek Taylor Elected to NAIOP Wisconsin Board of Directors

Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that partner Derek Taylor has been named to the board of directors of the Wisconsin chapter of NAIOP, the Commercial Real Estate Development Association.

NAIOP is a 19,000-plus member advocacy organization for developers, owners and investors of office, industrial, retail and mixed-use real estate. Taylor was elected to a three-year term on the board at NAIOP Wisconsin's annual meeting on Thursday, January 24.

Based in Milwaukee, Taylor is a member of Husch Blackwell's Financial Services & Capital Markets industry group and focuses on representing real estate developers in the purchase, sale, lease or financing of property. In 2017 he was named by NAIOP's Wisconsin Chapter as its Associate Member of the Year.
