Husch Blackwell Attorneys Receive Leadership Council on Legal Diversity 2019 Fellowships

Husch Blackwell attorneys Anthony Grice and Daan Erikson have been selected to participate in the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity's (LCLD) annual professional education and networking programs. Grice, a partner in the firm's St. Louis office, will be a part of the LCLD's 2019 Fellows Program. Erikson, an Omaha-based associate, will participate in the LCLD's 2019 Pathfinder Program.

Founded in 2009, LCLD is comprised of corporate chief legal officers and law firm managing partners who are personally committed to creating a truly diverse legal profession. The LCLD Fellows program is a one-year program that involves relationship-building, in-person training, peer-group projects, and extensive contact with LCLD's top leadership. The LCLD Pathfinder Program, now in its fourth year as a full-scale program, is an initiative that targets junior associates and the newest members of corporate law departments.
