Singleton McAllister Named a Top Lawyer and Influencer by Lawyers of Color

Singleton McAllister of Husch Blackwell has been honored by Lawyers of Color as one of the nation's Top Lobbyists and Influencers for 2019.

McAllister, based in the firm's Washington, D.C. office, is a member of the firm's Technology, Manufacturing & Transportation industry group and its Government Contracts, Government Solutions and Public Policy, Regulatory & Government Affairs practices. She represents companies and trade associations throughout a wide range of industries in matters related to international trade, transportation, energy and healthcare.

Lawyers of Color is a 501(c)(3) devoted to promoting diversity in the legal profession and advancing democracy and equality in marginalized communities. The selection committee was comprised of its fellows, advisers, and editorial staff and chose distinguished influencers "who may not fit the traditional definition of a lobbyist but are on the front lines of consequential national political and policy battles." McAllister and other honorees were recognized at a September 10 event in Washington, DC.
