

NEWS RELEASES

PUBLISHED: DECEMBER 20, 2019

Services

Class Action Defense
eDiscovery Solutions

Litigation &
Alternative Dispute
Resolution

Securities &
Corporate Governance

Trade Secrets &
Business Information
Protection

Trust, Estate, &
Fiduciary Litigation

Industry

Financial Services &
Capital Markets

Samantha Lunn Selected for Tennessee Bar Association Leadership Law Program

Samantha Lunn, partner in Husch Blackwell's Chattanooga office and member of the firm's Financial Services & Capital Markets group, has been selected to participate in the Tennessee Bar Association's 2020 Leadership Law program.

Now in its seventeenth year, the Leadership Law program is designed to equip Tennessee lawyers with the vision, knowledge and skills necessary to serve as leaders in their profession and local communities.

This year's class of 33 attorneys – chosen from across Tennessee– will meet for its first session in January 2020, then spend the next six months learning about leadership in the legal profession, issues in the courts, policymaking in state government and the importance of community service.