St. Louis Business Journal Corporate Counsel Awards 2020: Carrie Bechtold has big responsibilities at Wells Fargo — and changed the system for its outside counsel

"A Godfrey, Illinois, native, she graduated from Quincy University and got her juris doctor from Southern Illinois University - Carbondale. Originally interested in a career in federal law enforcement, Bechtold landed at Peper Martin Jensen Maichel and Hetlage, a predecessor to Husch Blackwell, and worked on so-called "tech wreck" cases, when broker-dealers faced litigation after the dot-com bubble collapsed."
