Sonia Ramirez Anderson Named CHBA Outstanding New Hispanic Lawyer

Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that the Colorado Hispanic Bar Association (CHBA) has named Denver associate Sonia Ramirez Anderson as its Outstanding New Hispanic Lawyer for 2020.

CHBA presents this award annually to an outstanding Hispanic attorney, in practice for five years or less, who has demonstrated a strong commitment to the Hispanic community and the principles of the legal profession.

Anderson focuses her practice on helping companies navigate various employment related issues. She currently serves as the CHBA's Vice President of Committees.
