Husch Blackwell's Geraci Named to 2020 BTI Client Service All-Stars

Husch Blackwell partner Joseph V. Geraci has been named by corporate counsel to The BTI Client Service All-Stars 2020 by BTI Consulting Group. He is one of 475 attorneys nationwide singled out by the corporate counsel of leading business organizations as delivering “the absolute best client service.”

Geraci, based in the firm’s Austin office, is a member of Husch Blackwell’s Healthcare team. He has guided home health agencies, physicians’ organizations, hospitals and health systems through mergers and acquisitions and created models to integrate physicians into larger healthcare systems. Geraci writes for industry publications and speaks frequently at industry conferences, including the American Bar Association’s Washington Health Law Summit, the Institute on Medicare and Medicaid Payment Issues, the Texas Health Law Conference and at other events.

Geraci is board certified in healthcare law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization and is active in the American Bar Association Health Law Section, the American Health Law Association, and the Health Law Sections of both the Austin Bar Association and the State Bar of Texas.

Now in its 19th year of publication, the BTI Consulting Group report is the result of in-depth interviews with 350 top-ranking legal decision-makers at large organizations with $700 million or more in revenue. No attorney can lobby to be added to list or self-nominate, and law firms cannot provide names of clients to be contacted.
