5280 Names Three Husch Blackwell Attorneys to "Denver's Top Lawyers 2021" List

Three attorneys from the Husch Blackwell's Denver office have been named to 5280's annual "Denver's Top Lawyers" list for 2021.

Partner Steven Levine, leader of the firm's Cannabis practice, is recognized on the list in Marijuana Law. 5280 has recognized Levine in this category in its list every year since 2016.

Partner Marshall Custer is a first-time honoree, also in the field of Marijuana Law.

Associate Sonia Ramirez Anderson is a first-time honoree in the field of Labor & Employment: Defense.

5280 compiled its 2021 list after surveying more than 17,700 licensed attorneys actively registered with the Colorado Supreme Court's Office of Attorney Regulation Counsel. The magazine also conducted interviews and connected with local bar associations to ensure a strong response to its peer-reviewed ballot.
