Million Named Chair of the Bankruptcy Law Section of the State Bar of Texas

Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that senior counsel Timothy A. Million has been named Chair of the Bankruptcy Law Section of the State Bar of Texas for 2021-22.

Based in the firm's Houston office, Million is a member of the firm's Energy & Natural Resources industry team and the Insolvency & Commercial Bankruptcy practice group. His work with energy industry clients spans both privately held and public companies and includes representations for debtors, secured creditors, acquirers of distressed assets, and creditors involved in a variety of bankruptcy litigation. He has experience with both debtor- and creditor-side bankruptcy representations, as well as providing counsel to trustees.

Million has been a member of the Bankruptcy Law Section's Council since 2009 and is a past recipient of the Section's Outstanding Service Award. Million is also a member of the American Bankruptcy Institute and is a co-founder of the Houston Association of Young Bankruptcy Lawyers.
