David and Holloway Honored as Top Women Lawyers by Texas Diversity Council

Two Husch Blackwell office managing partners – Kate David and Lorinda Holloway – were named Top Women Lawyers at the Texas Diversity Council’s Virtual Legal Diversity Summit held September 28, 2021.

The Top Women Lawyers list recognizes attorneys and general counsel who received a high degree of peer recognition for leadership excellence and professional expertise; exemplify a noteworthy commitment to fairness, equity, and justice in client representations and professional collaborations; maintain a superior level of integrity and dignity across the full spectrum of legal dealings and responsibilities; and demonstrate commitment to helping other women succeed.

David is the firm’s office managing partner in Houston; Holloway is the firm’s office managing partner in Austin.

The Texas Diversity Council is “committed to fostering a learning environment for organizations to grow and leverage their knowledge of diversity.”
