

Husch Blackwell Named to The Civic 50 Colorado

FIRM RECOGNIZED AS ONE OF THE 50 MOST COMMUNITY-MINDED ORGANIZATIONS IN COLORADO

Husch Blackwell has been named an honoree of The Civic 50 Colorado by CSR Solutions of Colorado and Points of Light, the world's largest organization dedicated to volunteer service. The award recognizes Husch Blackwell as one of the most community-minded companies in Colorado, determined by an independently administered and scored survey.

The Civic 50 Colorado initiative, modeled after Points of Light's national program, provides a standard for superior corporate citizenship and showcases how companies can use their time, talents, skills and resources to drive social impact in their company and communities.

The Civic 50 Colorado honorees were officially recognized at the Virtual Honoree Announcement on November 9, 2021. View the recording at csrsolutionsco.org.

"We are extremely honored to have our community service efforts recognized by CSR Solutions of Colorado and Points of Light," said Kevin Kelley, Husch Blackwell's Denver Office Managing Partner. "We have put volunteer service and philanthropy at the heart of our firm's culture, and especially during the pandemic, community service has been an area where our entire office could collaborate and feel connected to one another and the community at large."

The Civic 50 Colorado survey is administered by True Impact, a company specializing in helping organizations maximize and measure their social and business value, and consists of quantitative and multiple-choice questions that inform the scoring process.
