Husch Blackwell Litigators Shortlisted in Three States for 2022 Benchmark Litigation US Awards

Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that the firm's litigation team has been shortlisted by Benchmark Litigation for its 2022 US Awards series in Missouri, Nebraska and Wisconsin. The state-level award seeks to recognize the year's most outstanding litigation team in each state. Husch Blackwell last received Benchmark's Law Firm of the Year in 2020 in the state of Nebraska.

Benchmark's US Award series recognizes the country's most distinguished litigators and their firms for their exemplary work over the past twelve months based on months of peer review-based research and law firm submission reviews. The award winners will be announced at ceremonies in New York and San Francisco on March 24 and April 7, respectively.
