Missouri Lawyers Media Names Glynias and Potter to 2022 POWER List in Employment Law

Missouri Lawyers Media has named Husch Blackwell attorneys Josef (Joe) Glynias and Terry Potter of St. Louis to its POWER list for Employment Law for the second year in a row.

Glynias, a partner in the firm's Food & Agriculture group, concentrates his practice on the areas of employment law that change regularly, such as wage and hour collective/class actions under state and federal law. Potter, senior counsel in Husch Blackwell's Healthcare, Education & Manufacturing groups and a former field attorney with the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB), focuses his practice on labor and management relations.

The full 2022 edition of the Missouri Lawyers Media POWER list profiling the state's most powerful attorneys in employment law is available here: Missouri Lawyers Media POWER List – Employment Law (log-in required).
