Husch Blackwell's Kline Selected for 2022-23 Kansas City Tomorrow Leadership Class

Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that Chris Kline has been named to the Civic Council of Greater Kansas City's 2022-23 Kansas City Tomorrow (KCT) leadership class.

The Kansas City Tomorrow (KCT) leadership program is a selective, year-long experience that prepares senior-level business and community leaders for civic engagement in the Kansas City region. The course prepares participants to assume leadership roles in the community by serving on the boards of nonprofit organizations or by getting involved in the region's key issues.

Kline, a member of the firm's Real Estate, Development & Construction industry group, is a senior associate based in Husch Blackwell's Kansas City office. He represents clients in a wide range of land-use transactions such as exemptions, rezoning, variances, permits, licenses, street vacations and other legal challenges. He also guides individuals, public and private companies, and nonprofit organizations across a variety of sectors with respect to real estate acquisition, sale, leasing and financing transactions.
