Husch Blackwell Named to Managing IP's Americas Awards 2023 Shortlist

Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that the firm has been shortlisted by Managing IP for its 2023 Americas Awards series in two award categories.

Husch Blackwell's Section 337 team is one of seven finalists listed for national recognition in the U.S. International Trade Commission (ITC) category, while the intellectual property litigation team is one of six firms considered for distinction in the Midwest for Patent Contentious. The regional-level award seeks to recognize the year's most outstanding firm in one of four regions.

Managing IP's Americas Award series recognizes the country's most distinguished intellectual property practitioners and their firms for their remarkable achievements and developments over the past year based on months of evaluating work data supplied by firms and, where applicable, reviewing publicly available information such as court and IP office records. The award winners will be announced at ceremonies in New York on April 27.
