National law firm Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that Missouri Lawyers Media will honor TaRonda Randall with the 2023 Diversity & Inclusion Award.

Randall, senior counsel based in the firm's Kansas City office, provides college and university clients with a comprehensive understanding of the challenges associated with collegiate athletics. She assists clients by analyzing NCAA legislation, drafting, and submitting waivers and violations of NCAA bylaws, conducting athletics compliance assessments and independent investigations related to student-athlete welfare issues, as well as advising institutions on issues related to diversity, equity and inclusion and Title IX equity in athletics.

Randall is one of 20 attorneys, firms, and legal professionals from around the state who will be honored by Missouri Lawyers Media for efforts to support and advance diversity, equity, and inclusion initiatives. Randall and her fellow honorees will be recognized at a virtual event on August 10, 2023.
