

NEWS RELEASES

PUBLISHED: JANUARY 9, 2024

Chief Financial Officer Timothy Tyler Selected Among Top 25 CFOs of Missouri

National law firm Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce the recognition of Chief Financial Officer Timothy Tyler as one of the Top 25 CFOs of Missouri for 2023 by TOP CFOs.

TOP CFOs featured chief financial officers who bring extensive financial experience, guiding their companies in strategic planning, operational decisions, risk management, investor relations, and industry and global challenges, impacting their financial success and overall value creation.

As the leader who oversees all financial activities at the firm, Tyler plays a key role in Husch Blackwell's growth and success. Tyler is ultimately responsible for the integrity of financial information and systems for the firm and directing the firm's overall financial policies. He provides financial updates to the Executive Board and works closely with leadership across the firm to maximize opportunities that may influence the firm's financial performance, achieve its strategic goals and continue its ongoing growth trajectory.