Chief Client Officer Angela Quinn Named a 2024 Titan 100

National law firm Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that Chief Client Officer Angela Quinn has been recognized as a 2024 Titan 100, one of St. Louis' Top C-level executives.

The St. Louis Titan 100 program recognizes the top 100 CEOs & C-level executives based in the area. The honor is given to the most accomplished business leaders in their industry using criteria that include demonstrating exceptional leadership, vision, and passion.

“Angela has helped guide Husch Blackwell to more than five years of year-over-year growth in headcount, revenue, and client satisfaction scores,” said Chief Executive Elect Jamie Lawless. “No one is more deserving of this recognition than she is. We are incredibly proud of all that she has accomplished, and grateful for all that she has done for the firm over the past two decades.”

Quinn joined Husch Blackwell as a lawyer more than 20 years ago. After more than 10 years as a healthcare attorney—making partner during that time—Angela assumed the dual roles of Director of Operations for the Healthcare, Life Sciences & Education industry group and Director of Strategic Growth for the firm. In 2017, she was promoted to her current role where she helped the firm build an award-winning client services program, one that has been named a Value Champion by the Association of Corporate Counsel three times—2017, 2018, and 2022. The ACC Value Champions program spotlights successful law department value initiatives and collaborations between clients and their legal service providers.
