THOUGHT LEADERSHIP

WHITE PAPERS

PUBLISHED: APRIL 28, 2024

2024 NCAA Compliance Report: College Athletics in Transition Services

Collegiate Athletics Higher Education

Industry

Education

Professionals

HAYLEY E. HANSON KANSAS CITY: 816.983.8377 HAYLEY.HANSON@ HUSCHBLACKWELL.COM

JASON J. MONTGOMERY KANSAS CITY: 816.983.8291 JASON.MONTGOMERY@ HUSCHBLACKWELL.COM

TARONDA RANDALL KANSAS CITY: 816.983.8255 TARONDA.RANDALL@ HUSCHBLACKWELL.COM

KRISTINA MINOR CHICAGO: 212 025 2262

Husch Blackwell is pleased to share its fourth-annual NCAA Compliance Report, which explores the legal and regulatory uncertainty the NCAA and its member schools are facing as the popularity of college sports is at an all-time high.

This year's report includes insights on:

Ongoing litigation and the argument of classifying athletes as employees

HUSCH BLACKWELL

The transfer portal and Name, Image, and Likeness (NIL)

Title IX gender equity

Sports gambling in college athletics

Download Report

Contact us

If you have questions about how the information in this report impacts you or your institution, contact Hayley Hanson, Jason Montgomery, TaRonda Randall, or your Husch Blackwell attorney.