Two Husch Blackwell Partners Named 2024 BTI Client Service All-Stars

National law firm Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that Bill Corum and Jeff Whitney have been named 2024 BTI Client Service All-Stars.

The two Husch Blackwell partners are among 296 attorneys from 148 firms identified by corporate counsel as standing above all the others in delivering the absolute best in client service. BTI Consulting staff conducted more than 300 in-depth interviews with top legal decision-makers at large organizations with $700 million or more in revenue to arrive at the final list.

Corum and Whitney are both members of the firm's Litigation & Alternative Dispute Resolution practice group. Corum is a member of Husch Blackwell's virtual office, The Link, and Whitney is based in the firm's Denver office. As a trial lawyer, Corum is sought out by national and global companies for his litigation strategy and direction. Whitney regularly represents companies in state and federal court involving breach of contract, fraud, breach of fiduciary duty and unlawful trade practices.

Now in its 23rd year of publication, BTI Consulting notes that The BTI Client Service All-Stars list is the "gold standard used by corporate counsel and law firms alike to identify the attorneys delivering the absolute best levels of client service — better than all others."
