5280 Magazine Recognizes Four Husch Blackwell Attorneys as Top Lawyers

National law firm Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that four of its Denver-based attorneys have been recognized as 2025 5280 Magazine Top Lawyers.

Partners David Stauss (Communications/Technology), Barbara Grandjean (Labor/Employment: Defense), Marshall Custer (Marijuana), and Steve Levine (Marijuana) were honored in their respective practice areas. Stauss is a member of the firm's Data Privacy & Cybersecurity practice group. Grandjean serves as the Office Managing Partner for Husch Blackwell's Denver office, while Custer and Levine serve as co-leads of the firm's Cannabis team.

Now in its 11th year, 5280 Magazine compiled a listing of Denver's best attorneys based on a rigorous peer-review process and the editors' research. The list of approximately 560 area attorneys appears in the January 2025 issue of 5280 Magazine.
