Husch Blackwell Holds No. 1 Spot on ABA Health Law Section's Top 10 List

For the third year in a row, Husch Blackwell has been named as the top health law firm nationally by the American Bar Association's (ABA) Health Law Section in its 12th Annual Regional Law Firm Recognition List Top 10. In addition to its No. 1 national ranking, Husch Blackwell also ranked first in the Midwest Region and third in the Northeastern, Southern, and Western regions.

"We have an unparalleled healthcare team, and this recognition continues to prove Husch Blackwell's commitment to the industry," said Curt Chase, partner and leader of Husch Blackwell's Healthcare, Life Sciences and Education business unit. "As we continue to expand our presence nationally, we are focused on meeting the evolving needs of our clients, with the goal of being the go-to firm for the healthcare industry."

In addition to topping the ABA Health Section's Top 10 List, Husch Blackwell's healthcare team received numerous accolades in 2024, including occupying the top spot in the American Health Law Association's Top Honors listing, which recognizes law firms "that consistently and enthusiastically encourage and sustain their members' and employees' affiliation with AHLA." The firm also earned national rankings from Chambers USA and Legal 500 United States in their healthcare law categories.

Hal Katz, David Hilgers, and Andy Demetriou have served as ABA Health Law Section past chairs. Joe Geraci is currently a council member at large, while Diane Carter, Ellee Cochran, Anna DuBois, Spencer Smith, and Noreen Vergara currently hold various leadership roles within the section.
