Husch Blackwell Shortlisted in Five Categories for Managing IP's Americas Awards 2025

National law firm Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that the firm has been shortlisted by Managing IP for its Americas Awards 2025.

The firm has been shortlisted for Midwest Firm of the Year in patent prosecution and patent disputes where it is one of six and seven firms, respectively, considered for distinction. The regional-level award seeks to recognize the year's most outstanding firm in one of four regions.

Individually, partner Beau Jackson has been shortlisted for national Practitioner of Year (ITC), where he is one of eight finalists. Don Mizerk is one of eight attorneys considered for Litigator of the Year (Illinois) while Jeffer Ali is one of five finalists for Litigator of the Year (Minnesota).

Managing IP's Americas Award series recognizes the country's most distinguished intellectual property practitioners and their firms for their remarkable achievements and developments over the past year based on months of evaluating work data supplied by firms and, where applicable, reviewing publicly available information such as court and IP office records. The award winners will be announced at a gala dinner in New York.
