Husch Blackwell Named Firm of the Year by Legal Aid Service of Collier County

National law firm Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce it has been named Firm of the Year by Legal Aid Service of Collier County.

In honoring the firm with the award, Legal Aid Service of Collier County recognized Husch Blackwell for its substantial impact on the organization, including through pro bono service, leadership, and financial support led by partners Kelley Geraghty Price and Michael Dana.

“Husch Blackwell has quickly established itself as a key supporter of our mission and is a highly valued partner as we strive to expand access to justice for those in need in Collier County,” said Carol O’Callaghan, Regional Deputy Executive Director of Legal Aid Service of Collier County. “Members of the firm have performed pro bono service through events such as Wills for Heroes and provided leadership to Legal Aid to garner support for our program and to promote pro bono service, among other very impactful contributions. We are grateful to Husch Blackwell for all its support, and we are proud to present them with our 2025 Law Firm of the Year award.”

The award will be formally presented on May 1 at the Rockin’ Blues Bash.
