OVERVIEW

Lizet has focused her career on immigration law and, since 2018, gained significant experience in this area.

She has worked on a wide range of immigration matters, gaining firsthand experience and a deep understanding of the complexities of the immigration process. Known for her attention to detail and strong organizational skills, she plays an integral role in supporting attorneys and legal teams with client matters.

Lizet is valued as a key player in preparing the forms for a range of immigration matters, including Adjustment of Status applications, including National Interest Waiver, Extraordinary Ability (EB-1A and EB-1B), and O-1 petitions. She also assists in scheduling consultations and client meetings with our valued clients.

As someone who genuinely cares about every case she works on, Lizet approaches her work with compassion, patience, and a commitment to helping individuals and families navigate their immigration journeys with confidence.
