OVERVIEW

Daniel represents banks and financial institutions in complex commercial disputes. He distills intricate legal and business challenges into clear, strategic solutions—bringing focus, precision, and resolve to even the most demanding litigation. He practices from Hoboken, New Jersey as a member of our virtual office, The Link.

He defends clients in consumer finance disputes under the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, Fair Credit Reporting Act, Truth in Lending Act, Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act, and New Jersey Consumer Fraud Act. He also represents financial institutions in both federal and state court matters involving breach of contract, fraud, predatory lending, and breach of good faith and fair dealing.

Daniel has substantial courtroom experience: He regularly argues dispositive motions and is prepared to handle cases from inception through trial when necessary.

A former Division I athlete, Daniel brings a competitive drive and relentless work ethic to his practice. He thrives in the adversarial nature of litigation and is motivated by the challenge of crafting and delivering compelling arguments that give clients the edge in court. Clients view him as a steady and pragmatic advisor who prioritizes clear, thoughtful communication. He ensures they have the information needed to make informed decisions, offering well-developed recommendations grounded in a complete understanding of the facts. Daniel is
