OVERVIEW

Adrienne is a bilingual civil litigation attorney who focuses her practice on defending premises liability and motor vehicle claims.

During the course of her career, Adrienne has represented Fortune 500 companies—including Fortune 50 members, major restaurant and hotel franchises, and a leading healthcare system. Her experience also includes defending drivers in motor vehicle cases under Florida's statutory framework governing transportation network companies.

Leveraging strong investigative and research skills, Adrienne carefully evaluates claims, analyzes evidence, and develops persuasive defenses. She is particularly focused on protecting recognizable brands from paying unwarranted or inflated claims, ensuring that settlements and outcomes reflect the merits of each case.

Clients value Adrienne's thoughtful, results-driven approach to case management, particularly in mediation. She is known for crafting clear, persuasive presentations that distill key themes and help resolve cases efficiently. Fluent in Spanish, she communicates directly with Spanish-speaking clients and witnesses, effectively preparing them for all stages of litigation. Her strong interpersonal skills further enhance her effectiveness in negotiations and client communications.

Adrienne's analytical skills are rooted in a lifelong foundation in conceptual thinking. She refined her creativity at a top-ranked arts and design high school before going on to major in advertising, with a minor in psychology.
