OVERVIEW

Christy is an experienced paralegal who provides comprehensive support to attorneys in Husch Blackwell's New York Personal Injury Protection (PIP) Act practice team throughout all stages of litigation.

Christy has worked in the legal field for more than 25 years, with a focus on litigation and bankruptcy matters in Georgia, Missouri, Arkansas and New York.

She has extensive experience working on high-volume and deadline-driven matters and brings a strong background in civil, bankruptcy, community association, estate, probate, and mass tort litigation. Her prior experience includes roles in private law firms, bankruptcy servicing for mortgage lenders, and court administration, including service as a Clerk of Court. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice and an Associate of Science in Paralegal Studies from Drury University.

Christy is valued for her experience, professionalism, and commitment to delivering high-quality paralegal support.
