OVERVIEW

Margaret supports clients and legal teams in complex tort matters, with a focus on asbestos litigation.

Margaret's main priority is exceptional service for both external and internal clients. She ensures excellent communication so that all parties stay informed and aligned throughout the litigation process.

Her responsibilities include managing and organizing incoming data and pleadings for clients, analyzing documents to catch inconsistencies, and coordinating with legal teams with respect to new developments. Margaret also assists with discovery and case management to help achieve favorable outcomes for clients.
