OVERVIEW

Jolene is a seasoned litigation paralegal with more than 20 years of experience supporting complex litigation in New York and throughout the United States.

Jolene brings extensive legal experience across a variety of practice areas, with a proven ability to collaborate with national counsel, oversee local counsel, manage discovery, organize document-intensive cases, and support attorneys through all phases of litigation. She also has considerable experience in developing litigation procedures, training attorneys and staff, and implementing technology and workflows that promote efficiency and consistency.

Known for her organization, detail orientation, and ability to manage competing priorities, Jolene brings a collaborative, solutions-oriented approach to her work. She is committed to anticipating attorney needs and providing responsive, efficient, and high-quality litigation support while maintaining strong relationships with clients, attorneys, and colleagues.
