OVERVIEW

Kelli co-leads the firm's Business Immigration and Global Mobility team, representing a wide range of employers in obtaining and maintaining employment authorization for foreign national employees on a temporary and permanent basis.

Kelli represents employers across various industries, including agriculture, manufacturing, technology, engineering, healthcare, and education, working with employers to develop long-term immigration planning for foreign national employees. Her work

Had it not been for the immigration expertise of Husch Blackwell LLP, our top candidate might not have been secured. Kelli Meilink and Christine Fabin are experienced in the intricate details of the visa application process and have an extensive network to ensure positive results. They respond timely to inquiries and created a thorough visa application. They studied our institution, gaining an in-depth knowledge of our mission; then successfully presented our foreign candidate as an unequalled applicant for the position.

includes counseling clients through the temporary visa (H-1B, TN, L-1, E-2) and labor certification application processes and assisting employers in developing policies for employer-sponsored work authorization.

Kelli's skillset includes workplace compliance. She regularly counsels employers on proper completion and maintenance of Form I-9 and E-Verify participation. She has extensive experience assisting with Form I-9 and E-Verify audits and responding to governmental audits and investigations related to immigration compliance. She represents clients before U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, the U.S. Department of Labor, U.S. Customs and Border Protection, Immigration Customs and Enforcement, and other federal agencies.

A significant portion of Kelli's practice also focuses on the special rules for healthcare organizations and colleges and universities. Kelli regularly advises healthcare organizations on work authorization for foreign national physicians, nurses, and other healthcare workers. For colleges and universities, Kelli counsels on issues related to F-1 students and the Student Exchange and Visitor Program (SEVP) and on a variety of matters related to foreign national employees, including H-1B status and permanent residence for professors and researchers.
